Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

Claims 1-8 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Miller (US 4,573,577). Regarding claim 1, see 4, where the curved end of 66 before 78 is pointed towards the interior of the container. The bar pivots out of the plane of the top of the end walls. The slot is between 66 and 74. There are recesses before 84, at the top of 66, and at 54 which all hold the bar in place. The recesses are in the rim area. Regarding claim 5, the slot is a floating slot. Regarding claim 5, the bar is substantially c shaped. Regarding claim 7, the inwardly turned ends are configured for pivotal movement within the respecting floating pivot.

Claims 1-16 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Stahl et al (US 4,391,369). Regarding claims 1-16, see Figs. 1-6, where the floating pivot is 52 and the recesses are 58, 54, and 62. The bar pivots above the sidewalls and is held beyond 24 as seen in Fig. 1.

Claims 1-16 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Loftus et al (US 5,609,254). Regarding claim 1, see Figs. 1-3, where the end are turned in and the recesses are in the rim. The slot is 18. The bar will pivot beyond the top of the wall.
